Estimates for the Salaries of Territorial Officers.

A GREAT SHAKING UP.

Indian Agents are Subjected to Many Changes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The estimate made by the secretary of the treasury of appropriations required for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, show for Oklahoma: Salary of governor, $5,000; chief justice and four associate justices, $3,000 each, and $1,800 for clerk of territorial supreme court; for contingent expenses, $3,000, being double the amount for the present fiscal year. This increase is due to a bill put through by Delegate Flynn last session.

W. C. Perry, United States attorney for Kansas, is allowed $200 for miscellaneous use, and the same amount is also provided for United States Attorney Walker of the Western district of Missouri, and also to Attorney Cliff Jackson of the Indian Territory, while United States Attorney Brookes of Oklahoma is allowed $200.

The United States marshals for Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Indian territory are each allowed $200 for miscellaneous use.

Consul General Crittenden gets $4,000 for next year's salary, but the committee will be asked to increase the amount to $5,000.

Miscellaneous appropriations as follows: Apaches, Kiowas, Comanches, Wichitas, and affiliated bands, $12,000; Cheyennes and Arapahoes, $90,000; Kansas Indians, $2,500; Kickapooes, $5,000; Modocs of the Indian Territory, $4,000.

For the support of Indian schools: Chillico, $61,950; Haskell Institute, at Lawrence, $87,000.

For continuing work on the Kansas City public building under the present limit, $100,000.

Improving the Missouri river from its mouth to Sioux City, under direction of the commission, $750,000.

Fish hatchery, Neosho, Mo., for construction of a new hatching house and completion of a system of ponds, $5,400.

A Bill to Punish Mr. Kolb. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 4.—A bill was introduced in the house to-day by Representative Knight of Hiale, which is intended to put a stop to Kolb's interference and prevent all possible danger of a dual government. Briefly the bill makes it a crime punishable by fine or imprisonment for any person to take the oath of office and attempt to discharge the duties of such office without first having been declared elected thereto by the person or body having authority to so declare the result.

Counterfeiters Run Down. PERKY, Ok., Dec. 4.—Marshal Nix of Oklahoma has run down a gang of counterfeiters and is arresting some of them every day. It is said the gang is quite slick and doing a large amount of work. W. R. Hazzlett was before Commissioner Tebbe yesterday on a charge of making spurious coin and bound over under a heavy bond. Marshals say the most expert counterfeiters in the territory are women.

Affraid to Move the Taylors. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 4.—The Taylor brothers were not taken to Lincoln last night to be arraigned for the murder of the Meeks family. Owing to the fact that the last twelve miles of the journey would have to be made by team from Brookfield to Lincoln, Sheriff Barton decided it would not be a wise move to take them across in the night.

TRIAL OF ORDEAL.

A Murderer to Be Confronted With the Dead Body of His Victim.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Dec. 4.—Along about the middle of last October T. K. Miller and Jim Riley were tramping through the country near here. One day, it was October 17, one of Riley's teeth began to bother him and Miller tried to extract it with a rude pair of forceps. It was an awkward job. Riley's tooth was broken and his gum lacerated. The men quarreled again, and Miller shot Riley through the body with a pistol ball. November 8 Riley died.

Miller was not captured until after Riley's death. Out of this rather unique murder of a commonplace man there is likely to grow a sensational trial. It is proposed to try the old Saxon custom of trial by ordeal.

Ever since Riley's life went out his body has been lying in the Birnie Bros' morgue. It was embalmed by order of Coroner Kelleman, and is in a perfect state of preservation. Miller knows nothing of it. He denies the shooting, and there were no eye witnesses save Riley. It is stated on the very best of authority that the prosecution proposes to suddenly bring Miller face to face with his victim in court in the hope of breaking him down and forcing a confession.

WILSON PLEASED.

The Author of the Tariff Bill on the Message.

He is Highly Gratiified by Its Recommendations.

SOME OTHERS ARE NOT

Democratic Members of Finance Committee are Silent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Speaker Crisp had no opportunity to examine the message owing to the frequent interruptions, and was not prepared to express an opinion until he had done so.

Mr. Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee, expressed his great gratification over the president's vigorous recommendation of the free coal and iron bills sent to the senate, and his endorsement of the recommendation for the abolition of the differential on refined sugar.

Mr. Bryan, Democrat, Nebraska, said he was opposed to any nancial scheme which would give private individuals the power to issue money.

Mr. Reed of Maine, had nothing to say with regard to the message.

Mr. Burrows of Michigan, had no comment to make.

General Canby, Democrat, of Mississippi, one of the committee on rules, strongly indorsed the president's financial views.

Of the Democratic members of the senate committee on finance, Senators Voorhees, Harris and Vest asked to be excused from expressing any opinion on the financial views advanced by the president, and Senator Jones of Arkansas, would only repeat what he has heretofore said, that he did not believe any financial legislation would be possible during the present session. Republican members of the committee were almost disinclined to talk as their Democratic colleagues.

Senator Sherman would go no further than to say the message contained nothing striking.

Senator Allison declared it was not a time for Republicans to take the lead.

Senator Gorman, while declining to directly discuss the recommendations of the message, said that at the short session which was now beginning, action would depend largely upon the willingness of the Republicans to permit anything to be done.

Senator Brice, Democrat of Ohio—The Baltimore plan strikes me as a pure dream. Its adoption would certainly demoralize the finances of the country.

Senator Teller, Republican, Colorado—I cannot see that the message offers any relief to the country, and it appears to me as if the president failed to comprehend the financial or political condition.

Senator Stewart—The financial plan in Mr. Cleveland's message, stripped of verbiage, means that the United States shall give bankers $75 for $250. Any bank that will deposit $22.50 of legal tender, whether greenbacks or treasury notes, will receive $75 of our government money, a cunning way of retiring greenbacks. It removes all restrictions of the banking law against expansion and contracting by the banks to enable them and their associates to "rig" the market.

The thrifty farmer's wife knows the value of Dr. Price's Baking Powder. No other suits her.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

A Flood of Resolutions Introduced on Almost Every Topic of the Day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—After the president's message was read in the senate yesterday Mr. George presented a resolution directing the committee on rules to report a comprehensive revision of the rules with a view to expediting business and compelling a vote. The resolution was referred to the committee on rules.

Mr. Hoar offered a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the president for information not incompatible with the public service, concerning the recent massacres of Armenians in Turkey, and as to what protest, memorials, etc., had been presented by American citizens.

Mr. Turpie offered a resolution relating that the time had come for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. Mr. Turpie announced on Friday next he would submit some remarks on the resolution, and in the meantime the resolution went over.

Mr. Dolph presented a memorial from the commercial organizations of Portland, Ore., favoring the Nicaragua canal. Mr. Dolph urged the importance of the pending measures for prosecuting the canal.

Mr. Peffer offered two resolutions. The first directs the judiciary committee of the senate to investigate the circumstances and legal authority under which the secretary of the treasury made the last two issues of bonds. The second resolution calls on the president for information concerning the circumstances and necessity for sending United States troops to Chicago during the pendency of the Pullman strike. Both resolutions went over until Friday.

Mr. Call offered a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to inquire as to what extent the Louisiana lottery or Honduras lottery was operating in Florida; whether either of them had sought to control state or national elections; whether money had not been expended by them in tampering the election of members of congress, and whether they did not own or subsidize the newspapers in Florida. The resolution went over.

The annual report of the government directors of the Union Pacific railroad was received from the secretary of the interior.

The secretary of the navy submitted a reply to a senate resolution calling for the relative number of American citizens and aliens in the United States navy.

The annual report of the various departments and bureaus were read. Then, at 4 o'clock, on motion of Mr. Gorman, the senate adjourned.

TURKEY TELLS ITS

Agitations and Rebels Blamed for the Sins—Stories of Outrages Denied.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Turkish legation has furnished to the press the following official telegram received by the minister from Turkey relative to the troubles in Armenia:

"It has been ascertained that agitators, originally from Roumania and Greece and recruited in Caucasus, took an important part in the Sassoun rebellion. Following instructions from the London Armenian committee, money is now secretly subscribed in Caucasus with the view of creating more troubles at Mouch and other places. It was the Armenians of the Talourie district who started the revolt, attacking Muselman villages, the inhabitants of which had taken quarters near Diarbekir. Regular troops were at once sent on the spot. These troops never employed more than seventy Kurds, who acted as guides in those hilly regions, according to the custom that all armies follow."

"The facts show that far from committing any cruelties, the regular troops succeeded in restoring peace and order. A further proof that there was no persecution of any sort is evinced by the fact that peaceful Armenian villages, not partaking of the revolutionary movement, although surrounded by villages, the inhabitants of which were in open revolt, were left in perfect security and unmolested during and after the military operations."

Only by answering every requirement of an ideal baking powder has Dr. Price's secured and maintained its supremacy.

Mr. Bullene passed away quite unexpectedly, although his condition had been such that ultimate recovery had long ago been considered impossible. About 1 o'clock he had a sinking spell. He called to his daughter, Mrs. Root, and her husband, and they sent for Dr. Ayres. Mr. Bullene was beyond human aid and died a few moments later.

WHY SHE HELD HIM OFF.

But When Brought to Bay She Fully Explained.

They had met by accident and walked through the park together. She had been in high spirits, but as they neared her dwelling place her manner became more and more embarrassed. At last they reached her door, and he took out his watch.

"What a pleasant walk we have had!" she said nervously. "Do let us have another some time."

"By all means. But I see that I have time to stop a few minutes now. I'm glad, for I do want to see that photograph."

"Oh, yes, to be sure. But I really can't climb to that third floor yet. Let us sit down on the stairs and rest a bit."

He seated himself obediently. "Have you learned that new song yet?"

"Oh, yes. It is lovely."

"You must sing it for me when we go up stairs."

"I—why—that is, I'm not in voice at all today. Can't you come up tomorrow instead?"

"Awwfully sorry, but I can't. Have to meet a man from St. Louis on important business. You can sing it well enough today to please me anyhow. Are you rested yet?"

"N—not quite." Her face was a study.

"I don't feel as if I could ever mount those stairs."

"Take my arm, and I'll help you."

"Oh, no, I'll rest presently."

"I really must see that photograph."

"I—why, I don't know where I can have put it. I mislaid it somehow. You shall see it next time you come. I'll sing for you then, too, as long as you want."

His face stiffened. "Oh, well, if you don't want me to go up with you now, it's all right. I wouldn't intrude for the world."
